

Return on a classic and filmic sociological research Industrialisation of North Lorraine Region (France)

ESA Conference RS15 - Visual and Filmic Sociology

Aug 31, 2017

Christine Louveau de la Guigneraye

Centre Pierre Naville

Université Paris Saclay – Université d'Evry (France)

Ch.louveau@gmail.com

Valuing a social sciences film more than 40 years after it was made

- Lifetime of social sciences films: formats and diffusion

Valuing a social sciences film more than 40 years after it was made

- Lifetime of social sciences films: formats and diffusion
- Print durability versus film lifetime
- First sociologists who defended film use saw in it a way to document social change.
What happened in between?
- Sociological amnesia

Jours Tranquilles en Lorraine (Quiet Days in Lorraine)

- Why this film

Jours Tranquilles en Lorraine (Quiet Days in Lorraine)

- Why this film
- Research context
- Specific research linked to the film
- Link between research and film: film sourcing

Webdocumentary experimentation presentation