

Figure 2. Pan-genome schematic. The pan-genome consists of all genes found in a given species. This is comprised of a 'core' genome (genes found in all strains) and an 'accessory' genome (genes found in a single strain (i.e. strain specific) or a subset of strains (i.e. strain select)).