

Peer Review and Communication History

Streamlined Review – unable to share ported reviews and decision letter

MS Title: Addressing the Elephant in the Middle: Implications of the Midscale Disagreement Problem through the Lens of Body-Object Interaction Ratings

Author Names: Dimitri Paisios, Nathalie Huet and Elodie Labeye

Submitted: June 7, 2023

Editor First Decision: Accept
June 26, 2023

Dear Dimitri Paisios,

I have now had a chance to read over your manuscript “Addressing the elephant in the middle: Implications of the midscale disagreement problem through the lens of Body-Object Interaction ratings”, along with the letter describing the changes you made in response to the reviews originally received from Behavior Research Methods. I have also asked another member of our editorial team (Dr. Mathot, who consented to being acknowledged), to independently read your manuscript. I am happy with the manuscript and the revisions you have made and am hereby officially accepting your manuscript for publication in Collabra: Psychology. Congratulations on this excellent work, I think it will make an important contribution to the literature and I look forward to seeing it published! I hope your experiences with Collabra: Psychology have been positive and that you will continue to consider it as an outlet for your work.

As there are no further reviewer revisions to make, you do not have to complete any tasks at this point.

You will be receiving separate correspondence regarding any production and technical comments, data deposits, as well as publication charges. We work with the Copyright Clearance Center to process any applicable APC charges. Please note that your APC transaction must be completed before your article gets published.

You will have an opportunity to check the page proofs before we publish your article. Thank you again for publishing in Collabra: Psychology.

Sincerely,
Don van Ravenzwaaij